

I am opposed to weakening Indiana's "do not call" laws.
The present law is one of the best things government has done recently for average citizens. I love it the way it is.
Its only deficiency is that we need one for unsolicited faxes also.

Jim Barker